

The School.

The School will:

- Welcome, value and support our pupils as they make the transition to the world beyond our school.
- Provide an environment, a curriculum and opportunities, which enable pupils to achieve their targets and their potential.
- Expect and reward high standards of work, conduct, presentation and attendance.
- Care for the wellbeing and safety of pupils by following policies, including those on Bullying and Child Protection.
- Be open and welcoming to all parents and carers, encouraging them to be involved in the life of the school, informing them about school matters and the progress of their children.
- Provide regular updates on pupils progress and out interventions in place if required.
- Involve agencies which can support pupils and parents through the period of transition to the world of work, training and further education.
- Set and mark pupils classwork and homework in line with the Marking Policy.
